Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 04 September 2009.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's Amendment filed September 04, 2009 has been received and entered into present application. Claim 2 was canceled and no claims were added by applicant. Claims 10-21 remain withdrawn, and thus claims 1 and 3-9 are pending.

Applicants' arguments, filed September 04, 2009, have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1 and 3-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for treatment of acute respiratory distress syndrome and inhibition of vascular permeability with FTY720 and (R)-ALL, does not reasonably provide enablement for treatment of other compounds of the generic formula claimed in claim 1. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

Claims 1 and 3-9 were previously rejected for lack of enablement in the rejection mailed March 04, 2009 the reasons of which are herein incorporated by reference. Applicant has successfully argued that FTY720 and R-ALL have been shown to inhibit vascular permeability and has provided a link between vascular permeability and acute respiratory distress syndrome, however as detailed in the previous office action the claims encompass more than that and applicant has not addressed the parts of the previous rejection with regards to compounds other than FTY720 and R-ALL. Those compounds are very similar in scope and are not representative of the generic formula which can encompass a variety of compounds that are entirely different. These compounds are not enabled either for making them, as some are not known in the art at all or for using them as one would not expect them to have the same effect due to structural differences. In the claims R1 is a "substituted or unsubstituted straight or branched carbon chain having 12 to 22 carbon atoms". Applicant has not put any limits on what can be substituted and thus a wide variety of very different compounds are encompassed by the generic formula. Applicant has only directed their response towards the two compounds FTY720 and R-ALL. Additionally, as noted in the previous rejection applicant has not known how these compounds would treat other vascular permeability disorders.

Applicant's arguments were very carefully considered but their argument is not deemed persuasive and thus the rejection of claims 1 and 3-9 is maintained.

Conclusion

Rejection of claims 1 and 3-9 is deemed proper and is maintained.

No Claims of the present application are allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
